Environment and Development Conference
University of Virginia

Sponsored by: Center for International Studies, Batten School, Darden School, and the Department of Economics

May 20

Lunch

I. Sanitation

Talk 1: 1:00-2:00 Dean Spears (Princeton): “Environmental enteropathy, open defecation, and human capital: How much international variation in child height can sanitation explain?”

Talk 2: 2:00-3:00 Mushfiq Mobarak (Yale School of Management). “Voter and Politician Responses to a Large-Scale Sanitation Intervention” With Raymond Guiteras

Coffee 1: 3:00-3:30

II. Regulation and Environmental Protection (cost benefit)

Talk 3: 3:30-4:30 Maureen Cropper (University of Maryland): “Fuel Conservation Policy in the Indian Car Market.” With Randy Chugh

Talk 4: 4:30-5:30 Nick Ryan (Harvard): “The Costs of Enforcing Environmental Regulation: Experimental Evidence from Inspections of Polluting Plants.” With Esther Duflo, Michael Greenstone, Rohini Pande

Light Cocktails

Dinner: 7:00 – Garrett, Great Hall
May 21:

Breakfast: 8:30

III. Merrick Lecture:
   Environment and Resource Economics in the Developing World
   Michael Greenstone (MIT) 9:00-10:00  (Garrett, Great Hall).

Coffee break 10:00-10:15

IV. Exposure- Risks and Vulnerability

Lunch: 12:15-1:15

V. Water Quality: Mitigation Strategies and Behavior

Coffee break 3:15-3:30

VI. Conservation

   Talk 5: 3:30-4:30 Kathy Baylis (University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana), “Conserving Forests: Mandates, Management, or Money?” with Jordi Honey-Roses and Isabel Ramirez.

   Talk 6: 4:30-5:30 Kelsey Jack (Tufts), “Contracting for Environmental Outcomes: A field Experiment in Zambia.” With Samuel Bell, Paulina Oliva, and Elizabeth Walker

Concluding Remarks: Andrew Foster, Brown University