

Department of Economics

William M. Hill, Jr. Award Application

Economics majors who are currently third-year students may apply for William M. Hill, Jr. Award, a scholarship to be paid during the recipient's fourth year. Criteria for the award are "strong potential, significant contributions to the University community, a positive outlook on life, and a Jeffersonian intellectual curiosity." Transfer students may apply.

Please complete this form, save it, and submit it with your unofficial transcript and current résumé/curriculum vitae via email to ab3f@virginia.edu, by 11:59pm (EST) on Monday, March 14, 2022. If you have questions, please contact Annamarie Black (ab3f@virginia.edu).

Name:

Local Address:

Local Phone:

Email address:

Cumulative GPA at the end of Fall 2021:

Economics GPA at the end of Fall 2021:

Transfer students please complete the following -

UVA GPA:

Former school(s) GPA:

Former school(s) name(s):

Course registration for Spring 2022 (include course mnemonic and number, course title, and instructor).

List names of three Economics faculty members who know you well:

You may use a separate word for these questions if you prefer. If you do, please type your responses, be sure give to provide three separate and numbered responses. Put your name on all the pages (in footnote) and save them as one Word or PDF document.

1. Briefly describe your contributions to and involvement with various facets of the University community:

2. Describe your interests, activities, and achievements outside of the classroom:

3. Describe your career ambitions: